World Book Day Thursday 6th March 2025

This year we are celebrating by inviting children to get cosy with a book by coming to school in their pyjamas with their favourite book.

As well as this, children are invited to make a storybook character from a potato if they would like to!

